1st CHALKI International Composition Competition 2020

1st Chalki International Composition Competition 2020

The 1st Chalki International Composition Competition 2020 is organized under the sponsorship of the Municipality of Chalki Island in Greece. The aim of competition is to encourage creative youth development and support new composers of contemporary music.

Composers of any nationality and age are invited to submit works for solo violin, or violin and electronics.

Eight finalists will be selected by the jury and will be performed by the violinist Yannis Kormpetis in Chalki Island in Greece. The final concert will take place on 7th of July 2020. The jury, that consists of famous Greek composers, conductors and performers, will award three composers.

Composition Competition

The 1st Chalki International Composition Competition 2020 is organized under the sponsorship of the Municipality of Chalki Island in Greece.

Composers of any nationality and age are invited to submit a work for solo violin, or violin and electronics.

Regulations

Each competitor may present one or more works for violin solo or violin and electronics.

The duration of the work should be no less than 3 minutes and no more then 8 minutes.

The composition could be performed at past but never awarded any prizes in another composition competition.

All competitors must send, until 10 May 2020 the following materials to the email address chalkicompetition@gmail.com:

- The score in pdf format (and, optionally, a midi or live recording as mp3 file)
- A brief biography (not more than one page)
- The application form
- One photo
- The proof of payment of the participation fee

The works (and the recordings) should be anonymous and marked with a 6-digit code.

The jury will select eight works. The eight works will be performed in the final round, which will take place in Chalki Island on 7th of July 2020. The finalists will be informed by email for their selection.

Prizes

Prizes will be awarded to three of the finalists at the end of the concert.

First prize: 500 euros

Second prize: 300 euros

Third prize: 200 euros

Upon the agreement with the Organizing Committee any public organizations, including foundations and/or mass media, may offer additional prizes, awards and/or gifts for the competitors. Decisions on the awarding of any special prizes and/or gifts to the competitors will be taken by the jury of the Competition

Entrance Fee

Applicants must submit a registration fee of 10 euros (per piece) to the following account:

EDRASE, IBAN: GR5601100800000008029603704 BIC: ETHNGRAA

Participants have to explain the reason: Participation fee for composition competition

All additional questions regarding the competition may be addressed to:
chalkicompetition@gmail.com

Composition Masterclass

The 1st Chalki International Composition Competition invites the Greek composer Lina Tonia to give a masterclass to young composers in Chalki Island.

The award-winning composer Lina Tonia will discuss new scores and share her philosophy of thinking in contemporary music.

Dates: 5 – 7 July 2020

Profile of participants:

- Composition students and professional composers
- Age limit: None
- Course language: Greek & English

Documents to be submitted to the email address chalkicompositionmasterclass@gmail.com

- Two scores for solo, ensemble or orchestra (recordings optional)
- A brief biography
- The proof of payment

The participants will take two private lessons (45 minutes).

Deadline: 30 June 2020 (23:59)

Course fee: 80 euros The course fee will be paid to the following account: EDRASE, IBAN: GR5601100800000008029603704 BIC: ETHNGRAA Participants have to explain the reason: Participation fee for masterclass

The Jury

Vladimiros Symeonidis

Conductor, Composer

Theodoros Lotis

Composer

Michail Vekiaris

Composer

Lina Tonia

Composer

Yannis Kormpetis

Violinist